In September of nineteen hundred thirty-eight, seventy eager gobs streamed up the gangplank to board the "Good Ship Carey Hi." After getting acclimated in their various quarters under their commanding officers, Lieutenants Herbage and Fouts, they began to search for the shortest routes to their destination "The Isle of Commencement."

To reach this Isle quickly and without any hazards or disastrous results they found it was necessary to study diligently their log books (lessons), stay on their selected course by not violating the rules, and relaxing now and then by partaking in various activities: athletics, clubs, parties and such. Robert Wickham — President, Paul Smith — Vice President, and Wayne Zahn—Secretary-Treasurer were then elected to lead the gobs. The first season was tough sailing, but they gradually gained confidence in their abilities. After nine months their efforts were rewarded with a leave of three months at one of the ports along the route.

The following year found the majority of the gobs impatient to continue their journey. They started out in full sail under the leadership of Commanders Harding and Blose with petty officers; Robert Wickham 1st class, Phyllis Ulrich 2nd, and Margaret Martin 3rd class as able assistants. Now they had acquired the abilities of seasoned sailors and displayed their unusual talents in the many different activities aboard ship. To their complete surprise another port was soon sighted and they were ready for another leave.

Their journey was resumed after a few months of rest and each week brought them nearer to their destination. This was a voyage of several exciting adventures. Many storms were encountered but the gobs weather them all through the aid of their helpers; the late Harold Brown, President, succeeded by Ruth Heck; Robert Wickham, Vice-President; Paul Smith, Treasurer; Louise Kemerley, Secretary, and the additional help of two more assistants, Catherine Emerine and Jack Mulholland as the gobs had undertaken the task of selling candy.

Of course all this was not done without the invaluable aid of Captains Wentling and Stover. The gobs developed a flare for dramatics and produced a play which proved a success. To show they were becoming individually important they received rings as symbols of their splendid seamanship. The crowning event was the gala affair of the Junior-Senior Banquet to which Uncle Sam lent his colors. After this series of events, the port in view was a welcome sight because it signified another furlough from important duties.

After a leave of absence of three months, everyone was on deck this fall anxious to complete their journey. They selected this year; Ensigns: Wayne Zahn, president; Giles Krupp, vice president; Louise Kemerley, secretary-treasurer; under the very capable guidance of Admiral Smith. Things began with a bang this year when the gobs presented their chapel which previewed their big project of the year—CARYATID.

Thus far it has been a busy year with several of the gobs sharing in the many entertainments and activities including sports (many heroes on the gridiron clubs)(Active in Hi-Y, G. R., F. F. A., F. H. A., Glee Club and Band) Parties (Sadie Hawkins Dance) and different events aboard ship. The Senior Play is expected to be a hit; assuming it will be, the gobs will come through with flying colors. All are anticipating the annual Junior-Senior Banquet when they will strut forth in their best bib and tucker. They hope it will be as successful as last year's.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

We started out in high gear this year and are trying, with difficulty, to live up to the memoirs of the Seniors. To guide us Mr. Fisher and Mr. Wentling have agreed to try.

At the first class meeting Carl Turnbell was elected President; Martha Gottfried, Vice President; Virginia Kurtz, Secretary; Donald Long, treasurer, and Marita Snyder and Daniel O'done, Student Council members.

The candy stand has been under the expert management of Monica Mulholland and Judson Frederick. The whole class has cooperated, mingling through football and basketball turmoils, hoarsely shouting: candy, popcorn, ice cream, and gum.

The class play, "In The Doghouse" was successfully presented without too many mishaps. Miss Kieffer, who directed the play was probably amazed at the quick talent of our class and their peculiar characteristics.

The Junior-Senior Banquet is still in the future and many are looking forward to it. (Result—candy sales show a marked increase.)

We are all anxiously and hopefully studying to be Seniors next year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

In September, seventy-five of us started in our Sophomore year in good old Carey High. We have Mr. Blose and Miss Harrer as sponsors.

A short while later we elected officers and chose Bill Howard as president; Margie Vaughn as vice-president; Marilyn Shane as secretary - treasurer; Nadine Gibson, Jack Kitzler, Eva Wenner and James Calmes to represent us in Student Council.

We Sophomores are represented in football, basketball, band, glee club, Latin Club, F.H.A. and F.F.A.

And now as we draw to the close of our Sophomore year, we sincerely hope the next two years in Carey High will be as full of enjoyment as our first two have been.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

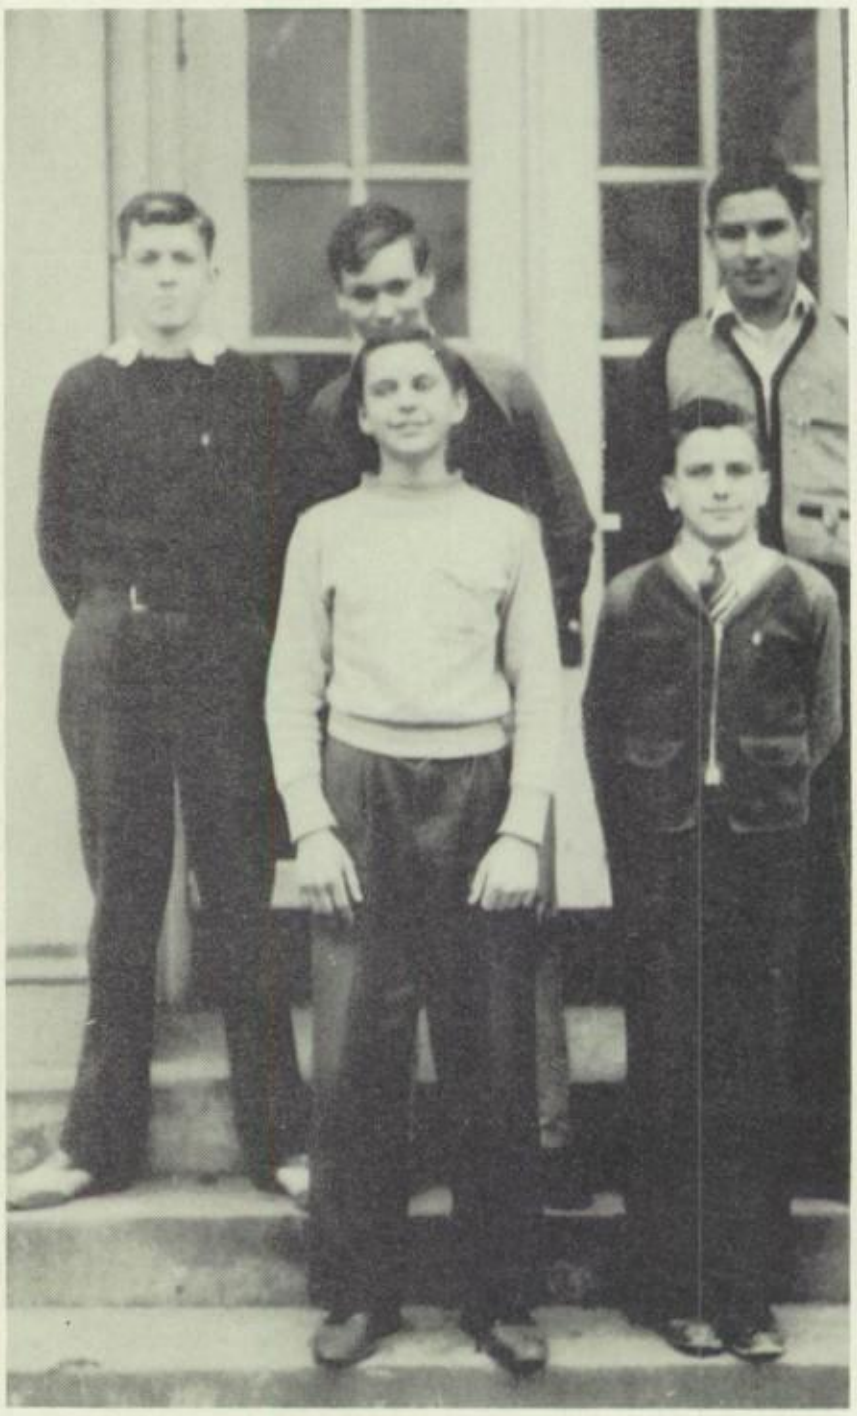
Seventy-two pupils make up the Freshman class. Several new members have joined the class since the beginning of the year. The members chose Lewis Buckingham to lead the class as President, as his assistants the members chose Gene Jacoby as Vice President and Richard Bland as secretary-treasurer. We were represented in the Student Council by Bobby Gibson, L. Jane Twining and Eugene Ulrich. The class was under the guidance of Miss Keiffer and Mr. Line

We were well represented in the activities of the high school.



The members of the class presented two successful chapels. We also enjoyed several class parties. Several members of the class were in the high school band.

We sincerely hope the next three years will be as successful as we have tried to make this one.

DRUM MAJORS

Hear the roll of the drums! Make way. Here comes the Carey High School Band in their uniforms of blue. Watch the drum major proudly strutting down the field closely followed by the five performing majorettes and the stately flag bearers. And see, here comes the briskly marching band.

Yes, the band is at its best this season which is due largely to the capable directorship of maestro William Holloway who has been doing a laudable bit of work. He is being ably assisted by Norman Zeis and Carl Turnbell who were elected managers and Wayne Zahn who was elected librarian.

The band has been very active thus far, playing at all the home football games and accompanying the team to most all of their out of town scrimmages. This year they have been executing some rather fancy formations on the field at the halves of the games, all the while pouring forth alluring music with hardly a sour note.

CHEER LEADERS

As is their custom, the band played at the county fair and at the annual Armistice Day program. On September 27, they journied to Sandusky to the grape festival where with many other bands they paraded before the observing spectators. Martha Gottfried, head drum major, still has another year to do her high-stepping before graduating.

An instrumental novelty was Mr. Holloway's swing band which made its bow this year at a school dance. They have been practicing hard and long, but it certainly has been worth the effort. When you hear them playing you can't help but get in the groove. Eleven pieces of rhythm and harmony really makes you want to dance. Here's hoping the swing band plays at many more school functions and that it becomes a permanent organization in Carey High School.

HUMOR

Bernard R.: "He called me processed coffee, so I socked him."

Vince J.: "I don't understand."

Bernard R.: "That's the coffee that advertises that 98 per cent of the active ingredients have been removed from the bean."

* * *

Margaret M.: "Is your boy friend stingy?"

Catherine E.: "Is he? Say everytime he takes a penny out of his pocket the Indian blinks at the light."

* * *

Blose: "I played in a game that ended in a 3-3 tie."

Bob W.: "How did you get 3 points?"

Wayne Z.: "Safety and extra points."

* * *

Miss Smith to American Lit. Class: "Do you know anything about Mark Twain?"

Ted W.: "He had a father and a mother."

* * *

Evelyn S.: "You can't send any more mail to Washington."

Jean L.: "WHY?"

Evelyn S.: "He's dead."

* * *

John L.: "Could you tell me the way to the next town?"

Farmer: "Just follow your own nose and if it's crooked, watch out for the curves."

* * *

Mr. Driver (hopefully): "Notice any improvement since last year?"

Caddy: "Had your clubs shined up haven't you?"

Wentling: "Don't you find that a baby brightens up a home wonderfully?"

Blose: "I do! We have the electric lights on most of the night now."

* * *

Dale L.: "How are you in history?"

Dick W.: "Oh I always say 'Let bygones be bygones'."

* * *

Howard S.: "Would you give 10c to help the Old Ladies home?"

Paul M.: "What! Are they out again?"

* * *

Blose to Sub: "Suppose the ball is on the 4 yard line last down, one minute to play, and we are 3 points behind, what would you do?"

Subs: "We would move the bench down further so we could see better."

* * *

Vic D.: "I used to think - - -"

Betty K.: "What made you stop?"

* * *

Rex H.: "She said she would be faithful to the end."

Tony: "Why that sounds good."

Rex H.: "Yes, but I'm the halfback."

IN MEMORIAM

The curfew tolls the knell of parting day,
A line of teachers wind slowly o'er the lea:
John G. got lost in his learned-minded way,
And leaves our school quite unexpectedly.
